Vacancy Filled.

At a meeting of the Board of Education of School Dist. No. 1, Perrysburg, Ohio, Dr. William H. Rhenfrank was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of E. L. Kingsbury to Bowling Green. The appointment is a good one and will give general satisfaction to the public school.

New Funeral Car.

Undertaker Russell P. Barton has purchased a new funeral car, which is a beauty. It is black and of the latest style and most elegant design, with square corners, large columns, and surmounted by a large urn. It is a Cunningham rig and makes a very fine appearance. He also has a very fine white hearse and is prepared in every way to give the best of service in his line of business.

Sentinel Clippings.

The street cars played in tough luck the first thing this morning. "Commodore Perry" was derailed at the Y, delaying traffic for a time, and "Bowling Green" talked on South Main street and would not start for awhile.

Sheriff Kingsbury to-day made his initial official trip to Columbus, taking his first prisoner to the penitentiary. It was Wash Hudson, sent up for a year.

Mrs. Ebenezer Ensminger, aged about 75, died at her home near Sugar Ridge, this morning at about 3 o'clock, as the culmination of several weeks' illness. Deceased was numbered among the old and highly respected residents of the locality. She is survived by her husband and several grown sons and daughters.

Cora Parker, a granddaughter of Mrs. Ensminger, residing at Dunbridge, also died about the same time, of consumption, aged 23 years.

The time of the funerals was not yet arranged when the information was furnished to the paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Entertain.

The pleasant home of Harry Barton and wife was the scene of a social gathering that was pronounced by the guests as being one of the most enjoyable events of the season. Six-handed euchre was the principal feature of entertainment augmented by an elegant supper and vocal and instrumental music. Beautiful prizes were awarded the successful players, Dr. and Mrs. Hill securing first prizes and Mrs. Wedertz and Will Powell the consolations. The guests present were:

IN MEMORIAM.

A precious one from us has gone,
 A voice we loved is stilled,
 A place is vacant in our home,
 Which never can be filled.

Dear Susie, you have gone and left us,
 Gone to tread your golden shore,
 And to join with saints and angels,
 That glad song forever more.

Yet, dear Susie, we shall miss you,
 And our hearts be filled with pain,
 For we wait to hear your footstep
 Never to return again.

But we know that up in heaven
 All is happy, bright and fair;
 And we'll join the glad chorus
 Over on the golden shore.

Yes, dear parents and dear sisters,
 I am gone, but do not weep;
 But rejoice my pain over,
 Now I stand at Jesus' feet.
